

Older Women's Network

NATIONAL CONFERENCE 2024

CELEBRATING OLDER WOMEN
an event hosted by OWN Qld.

This vibrant whole-day event features inspiring speakers, powerful stories of older women's experiences, and discussions on gender-focused legislation.

Our program highlights:

- Keynote speaker Maggie Kirkman, renowned author and scholar on Global and Women's Health
- Beverly Baker, President of the National Older Women's Network
- Claire Moore, Ambassador of OWN Qld, and former Qld Senator
- A thought-provoking panel discussion on how older women can thrive and live their best lives, featuring esteemed panellists from the National Older Women's Network, Kate Kunzelmann (OWN Qld), Stephanie Power (COTA Qld), Dr Louise Baldwin (QUT), and Professor Susan Harris Rimmer (Griffith University)
- Includes all conference sessions, Morning/Afternoon Tea and Lunch

The conference will also include engaging presentations, an interactive workshop, exciting prizes, and networking opportunities during pre-dinner drinks (at attendee expense) and an optional conference dinner ($75 for 3x course meal)

OWN Qld warmly welcomes members from interstate Older Women's Networks and like-minded organisations across Australia.

Don't miss this opportunity to connect, learn,
and celebrate the lives of older women!

Funded by

Queensland Government

This event has been made possible thanks to funding from the Queensland Government.

Event Details

Thursday 24th October, 2024

Day event - 9:00am - 5:00pm (sign-in 8:30am)

Dinner - 6:00pm (optional at an additional cost)

Hotel Grand Chancellor, 23 Leichhardt St Spring Hill

Cost - First 75 delegates $55

RSVP - 16th October, 2024

Bookings are essential. Please scan QR Code below or book online via

<https://www.trybooking.com/CUOCY>

For more information contact:
(07) 3358 2301
admin@ownqld.org.au

